

Conference:

The Senses and Crossmodal Perception – Aristotelian and Contemporary Perspectives

Philosophy, Berne
28 – 30 th October 2016

Friday 28th October

Lerchenweg 36 F-113

- 4.00 – 5.30 pm Perception as Spatial Representation
Mohan Matthen (Toronto)
- 5.45 – 7.15 pm Perceptual Objects and Crossmodal Perception in Aristotle
Klaus Corcilius (Berkeley, Tübingen)

Saturday 29th October

Lerchenweg 36 F-121

- 9.30 – 11.00 am Proprioception and Multisensory Awareness of Novel Feature Types
Robert Briscoe (Ohio)
- 11.30 – 1.00 pm Aristotle on the Unity of Perception and the Unity of its Object(s)
Michael Arsenault (Berkeley)
- 2.30 – 4 pm Crossmodal Object Perception
Matt Nudds (Warwick)
- 4.15 – 5.45 pm Alexander of Aphrodisias on the Individuation of the Senses
Katerina Ierodiakonou (Athens, Geneva)

Sunday 30th October

Lerchenweg 36 F-121

- 9.30-11.00 am Enhancement Through Coordination
Casey O'Callaghan (Washington, St-Louis)
- 11.15-12.45 am Property Binding in Aristotle
Pavel Gregoric (Zagreb)

Discussants: Colin King, Gavin Lawrence, Elizabeth Robertson, Martine Nida Rümelin

Organisers: R.A.H. King (Philosophy, University of Berne), Fiona Macpherson
(Centre for the Study of Perceptual Experience, University of Glasgow)

Registration: richard.king@philo.unibe.ch